Rules and Regulations for Golf Carts in Lost Plantation

The Homeowners Association thanks you for registering your golf cart. We are requesting that you follow some simple rules while operating your golf cart within Lost Plantation for the safety of all residents.

- You must maintain Liability Insurance while using your golf cart in Lost Plantation. A copy of your insurance must be on file with the Homeowners Association.
- You must have a valid driver's license or permit to operate a golf cart in Lost Plantation. Please do not let visiting children/grandchildren without a valid driver's license drive your golf cart.
- You may only operate your golf cart on the roadways or parking lots within Lost Plantation. Operation of your cart is not allowed on the landscaped grounds.
- When driving your golf cart around Lost Plantation, please follow the rules of the road, the same as if you were driving a car. Use hand signals, stop at stop signs, and give way to pedestrians.
- If you anticipate operating your golf cart after dark, you must have headlights and taillights on your golf cart.
- Please watch out for pedestrians and cyclists when driving around Lost Plantation. Some of the walkers are listening to music through their earphones and cannot hear approaching golf carts.
- Please give "right of way" to all pedestrians.
- Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, you and your golf cart must comply with all laws at all times.
- You must follow all other applicable Lost Plantation rules and regulations. This list is not exhaustive.
